

Hundreds of Thousands Bathe Internally

The marvelous growth of Internal Bathing since the advent of the "J. B. L. Cascade" is accounted for not only by the enthusiastic praise of its users to others, but also by physicians insisting more and more that the Lower Intestine must be kept free from waste to insure perfect health and efficiency.

Mary L. J. Walker, M. L. D., Olean, N. Y., writes:

"I must tell you of a case of Constipation lasting for twenty years, that was cured by your Cascade treatment."

The physician in charge said the patient had a tumor lying between the stomach and intestines. The patient being 62 years old, he claimed no help could be given except the knife; but finding the intestines in a very bad state I advised the "J. B. L. Cascade," which resulted in a complete recovery. When I took the case she was taking a laxative three times a day, and had been for three weeks; couldn't get along without it—now she never takes any laxative.

WHY HEADS OF HAIR ARE SO DIFFERENT

"Nature intended that every woman should have a wealth of beautiful hair—hair that can be arranged into an attractive coiffure, which accentuates her beauty," writes Betty Dean, beauty authority. "But so much depends upon the method of care, especially cleansing, that many fail to claim their right. If you use make-up instead of something designed for shampooing only, the scalp and hair-follicles may suffer injury and the hair grow dull, brittle and fall out. I have found that the easiest to use and most economical shampoo mixture is made by dissolving one teaspoonful of cantharox (which I get from any drug store) in a cup of water. It gently, yet thoroughly, removes every trace of dandruff, excess oil and dust and so energizes the hair-roots and delicate tissues that they become strong and healthy. After rinsing, the scalp is clean, the hair is soft, glossy, easy to do up and so fluffy it looks very, very heavy. These scalp stimulating cantharox shampoos not only promote a healthy condition, but encourage an abundant and silky growth of hair."—Advt.

HOYT ADMITS HE HEARD T. R. AND WHITMAN DICKER

Indorses Bonheur Story Prosecutor Agreed to Wait for Colonel's "O. K."

Political controversy in Republican ranks rages fiercely over the question of what negotiations were carried on at various times between District-Attorney Whitman and Col. Roosevelt. Job Hedges in a speech in Brooklyn last night renewed the charge that Mr. Whitman discussed alliances with the Colonel and asserted Justice Franklin Hoyt of the Children's Court was a witness of such a meeting.

When asked about it to-day Justice Hoyt said:

"I did attend a meeting between Mr. Whitman and Col. Roosevelt when there was discussion about the Mayoralty and gubernatorial nominations. I do not care to be dragged into the controversy because I consider that what was said was honorable to both parties."

"Without going into details, I may say that I indorse the statement recently made by Lucian Bonheur as covering in a general way what was said at that meeting."

Mr. Bonheur arranged two meetings between the Col. and the District-Attorney last year at which Mr. Whitman said, according to Mr. Bonheur, that if elected Mayor he would not be a candidate for Governor unless it was agreeable to Col. Roosevelt.

The idea of the conversation was that if machine control at Albany by the two old party organizations continued to be such that a man who stood for Roosevelt's ideals was needed to clean up the situation, Mr. Whitman would enter the field on such a platform.

Mr. Bonheur also said: "Mr. Whitman told Col. Roosevelt at that interview, as he had previously told me, that he had voted for Roosevelt in 1912."

Mr. Whitman denied again to-day in general terms he had not supported Taft in the last Presidential campaign. Job Hedges came back with demand that the District-Attorney say specifically and definitely whether he did or did not vote for Roosevelt and against the regular Republican ticket.

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schindler Celebrate It in Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schindler, who were married in Rochester, N. Y., on Sept. 21, 1864, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last night at their home, No. 489 Hart street, Brooklyn. Mr. H. Schindler, a brother, came from his home in Oakland, Cal., to attend the celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Schindler, who have been living in Brooklyn for the last thirty-six years, have five children and five grandchildren, all of whom are living.

POLITICAL SKIRMISH LINE

There will be two separate ballots voted at the November election this year. One will contain the names of regular State officers and the other is to be devoted exclusively to candidates for next year's Constitutional Convention. A group of politicians were in the Republican Club discussing more war than politics when one of them chanced to mention that there was a candidate for Constitutional Convention delegate.

"I am glad to meet you, sir," exclaimed ex-Senator Martin Sage of the upper west side. "I too am a candidate for the convention and you are the first man I have encountered even to mention the subject. I feel reassured now that there is at least one man besides myself who knows there is a Constitutional Convention election on."

A puzzle for the Board of Elections has arisen over the Constitutional Convention ballot. The special law providing for it is mystifying about the arrangement of names and the manner in which the voter shall mark his chosen candidates. There are fifteen delegates-at-large to be chosen from the entire State and then three more from each Senatorial district. The law says they shall be voted for as nearly as possible in the manner prescribed for Presidential elections.

The question is whether the fifteen and three can be grouped in one column and voted as a straight ticket with a single cross at the top or whether the entire list of candidates will have to be arranged in alphabetical order and each name voted separately. In such event the average voter would need an adding machine to keep track of the number of crosses he would have to make on the ballot.

William Sulzer refuses to say one word of criticism against his good friend Col. Roosevelt despite the latter sending out a letter urging Progressives to support Frederick M. Davenport for Governor in the party primaries. "Oh, that's all right," said the ex-Governor. "The Colonel had to say a good word for the hopeful nominee of his followers, but notice, he has not said a word against me, and after the primary day he will be supporting me as winner in the Progressive primaries. Davenport received his nomination from twenty-one monocoled molluscoides at Utica, who refused to give me the nomination because I do not part my hair in the middle or chew gum."

Estimates of the Sulzer vote in the November election vary at great extremes. Independent Democrats guess from 100,000 to 200,000. Regular Republicans estimate from 40,000 to 60,000. Tammany men say that he will cut hardly at all into the Democratic vote, as whatever support he receives will come from Progressive Republicans. Sulzer valiantly asserts that he has got Glynn beaten already, and in the last days Murphy will have to throw Democratic votes to Whitman to head off Sulzer's election.

The barring of Harry Apfelbaum out of Democratic primaries as candidate for State Senator in Big Tim Sullivan's old district on the Bowery is one of the curious reverses of politics. Apfelbaum was Big Tim's secretary for many years, chief commissary of his charities and faithful traveling companion. But when Apfelbaum wished to become his chief successor in the Senate, Boss Murphy decried otherwise and the organization support was given to Harry Doll. Even the courts knocked out yesterday the Sullivan attempt to permit Harry to run in the primaries.

Another case of political hard luck is that of Dr. Rufus P. Johnston, who resides on Washington Heights. He was slated for Republican nomination for State Senate in the Nineteenth Manhattan District, having 1,600 petition signers, but it was discovered that he was ineligible because he had resigned membership of the Board of Parole only fifty days before election instead of 100 days as the law requires. Then a trade was arranged whereby he would become Republican candidate for Congress in the Twenty-second District, changing places with Fred A. Higgins. But even this plan slipped, because Rep. Higgins had been elected to the House of Representatives and at the last moment gave the Congressional nomination to a Bull Moose in return for indorsement of the State and National candidates. Now Dr. Johnston is left off all tickets and besides is out of his Parole Board office.

Politicians are trying to figure out the political status of Register John J. Hopper of New York County. He was nominated and elected to his present office as an Independence League. He is now candidate for Democratic leadership of the Thirty-first Assembly District and at the same time candidate for delegate to the Constitutional Convention on the Progressive ticket. The Democratic club at No. 272 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, backs Glynn for Governor and Roosevelt for United States Senator. His chief lieutenant, Deputy Register Walton, looks after the Independence League organization on the same floor.

ROB UNDER EYE OF POLICE.

Burglars Ransack Helster Shop Opposite Headquarters.

The fact that the store of the Audley Safety Helster Company, which manufactures police supplies at No. 8 Centre Market Place, is directly opposite Police Headquarters did not deter burglars from entering it. When Mr. Audley opened up for business this morning he found the place had been ransacked.

All the thieves got were seven defective automatic pistols used as models for holsters. Good pistols were in the safe in plenty, but the thieves left the safe alone.

Entrance was made by cutting through a panel of an iron-shed door at the rear. In the yard the thieves left behind a bit and brace, which, Mr. Audley said, was worth more than the seven useless pistols. So he kept the tool.

WHITMAN WILL KEEP TAMMANY'S GRIP OFF HIS PRESENT OFFICE

There will be no Tammany District-Attorney of New York if Charles S. Whitman is elected Governor, it was said on authority to-day. Mr. Whitman does not intend to resign his present office if he is elected until he goes to Albany. Then he would have the appointment of his own successor as District-Attorney.

Mr. Whitman and his campaign manager, Frederick C. Tanner, have denied Job Hedges' charge that Lemuel Ely Quigg has anything to do with the Whitman campaign.

Mr. Hedges has reiterated that Quigg, Barnes, Parsons and Koenig were behind Whitman, and Odell, L'Hommedieu, ex-Senator Rose and John P. O'Brien behind Himman. He said: "Mr. Whitman should remain District-Attorney."

Two Republican "slates" supposed to represent the choice of William Barnes and those leaders who are with him in the primary fight have been made public.

On these slates Whitman is given as the choice for Governor, Wade for United States Senator, Frank S. Sidway for Lieutenant-Governor, William D. Cunningham for Secretary of State, Eugene M. Travis for Comptroller, Egbert E. Woodbury for Attorney-General, Frank S. Williams for State Engineer and James L. Wells for Treasurer.

The slate of the New York County organization, though it has not been officially announced, will differ from the Barnes slate. It will read: Whitman for Governor, Caidor for United States Senator, Schenck for Lieutenant-Governor, Francis M. Maguire for Secretary of State, Samuel Hirschburger for Comptroller, Edward R. O'Malley for Attorney-General, Frank S. Williams for State Engineer, and James L. Wells for Treasurer.
